

WESTERLY TOWN COUNCIL

Has Breezy Final Session—Hears Complaints Concerning Illegal Liquor Selling—Big Frank Saunders Given Information—Accidents—Executors of Burke Estate Prodded to Get Busy.

The last regular business session of the present Westery town council was held Monday, as a new council will be elected today (Tuesday). The present council will, however, meet Wednesday evening as an election returning board and canvass the vote cast for their predecessors, which will include all the present members, except Councilman Horace E. Burdick, as John T. Edmund has been nominated for a new member. At the session Monday, President William L. Clarke presided, with those councilmen present: Clarence Maxson, Maurice W. Flynn, William Colley, Wayland Edwards, Albert H. Langway and Herman E. Burdick. The minutes of the last regular and of four special meetings were read by Mr. Clarke.

At the opening the council acted as a court of probate, and the estate of Ellen Burke, whose will was admitted to probate March 15, 1908, Judge Edward M. Burke being disqualified by reason of relationship. Patrick Burke petitioned two months ago that the executor of the estate be removed, and the court granted the petition. The executor, Mr. Burke, had been removed, and the court granted the petition. The executor, Mr. Burke, had been removed, and the court granted the petition.

Judge Nathan B. Lewis, representing the petitioner, asked that the court issue a writ of habeas corpus for the executor, Mr. Burke, who was in custody of the court. The court granted the writ, and the executor, Mr. Burke, was released.

Patrick Burke said that an agreement had been reached two years ago in regard to the settlement of a claim, but that this claim had not been settled, as agreed, and he wanted to have the report submitted and made request to Mr. Burke to that effect last November and would not understand the cause for the delay.

Pasquale Salamone, Joseph Turano, Louis Tuscano and Antonio Acquafredda, licensed liquor dealers, appeared before the council, asking for business protection. Mr. Salamone asked that the law be enforced against the illegal sale of liquor in the Italian sections of the town, and that those who have paid for licenses be protected. He said that the names of about fifty suspects had been given to Chief Bransfield, that an investigation and one prosecution followed, but that he found no evidence against the others. Before license was voted he said that the police attempted to seek out violators of the liquor law, but since license was voted there was evident relaxation of investigation. Chief Bransfield asked what was the real condition at the present time. Salamone replied that there was more beer sold in these unlicensed places on Sunday than in the licensed places in a week. During no-license time, the police committee "spotted" out cases and sent men to jail, and he asked why similar measures are not taken in license times. Councilman Burdick stated that there was no police committee now, and that therefore there was no activity along that line.

Chief Bransfield took exception at what he termed an erroneous statement of the protection of his licensees, and there was police activity and a desire to enforce the law just as much as in no-license times.

Mr. Burdick qualified and said that he meant activity by the police committee.

Pasquale Salamone said he did not come to the council to make trouble, but to ask for protection of his business and advocated enforcement of the liquor law.

Chief Bransfield stated that he had visited places where the liquor law was violated last Sunday, but did not consider it his duty to report the names of the offenders. He said that more beer was sold in one of those places last Sunday than he sells in his own place in three days.

The monthly report of Chief Bransfield showed thirteen arrests, of which six were for intoxication. Health Officer Lewis Stanton reported nine cases of scarlet fever, two fatal, in month of May.

Edward Brown, appointed a democratic supervisor for the second ward in Tuesday's election, gave notice he could not serve. Charles M. Dewd was substituted.

Judge John W. Sweeney asked the council what action was to be taken for red light on the highway. Councilman Langworthy of the highway department said the matter had been referred to his committee, and would be taken up with Judge Sweeney during the present week.

Colonel Pick applied for license for the Watch Hill house, Rose Collins for Pleasant View hotel and Eugene Silver for hotel at Watch Hill. Herbert P. Clark asked that the matter of street lights in the Pleasant View section be given consideration. He said that there were fifty cottages, two hotels, a pavilion and stores at the beach, and that the lights would be a great convenience. Referred to the incoming street light committee.

At a session of the Third district court, before Judge Oliver H. Williams, Monday, came Timothy Murphy, charged with being a common drunkard, and was found guilty and sentenced to six months in the state work house. His father, John, was charged with being a common drunkard, and was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the Providence county jail. This trial made a combination of the three cases in court, and a common drunkard and a common drunkard, and was relieved of his hat, coat and shoes, but the stolen goods were found with John, and proof that he had sold the stolen goods for cash. Timothy was relieved of the charge of theft and was penalized as a common drunkard.

John F. Sailer, a passenger on the train due to arrive in Westery from New London at 6, is a railroad passenger at the Metropolitan hotel, under the medical attention of Dr. M. H. Scammon. Sailer is a shoe maker, and was on his way from Deland, Florida, and at New London, while standing on the platform the cars bumped together and he was severely injured. Although the railroad company was in no way responsible for the mishap, as the passenger was on the platform of the car in violation of the rules, it was considered but humane to give the man proper medical attention. The injury is not serious.

Henry Kenyon's first day's experience on a trolley car, as a beginner of collection of fares, resulted in a serious mishap to him. The accident occurred at the car barn. In order to make entry on the track assigned to the car upon which he had been "breaking in" it was necessary to fold the running board as the space between the door casing and the car is less than a foot. Kenyon was caught between this aperture and severely bruised, but escaped fatal injuries, although escape from death bordered on the miraculous. In addition to his own bruises his left hand was severely crushed and the fingers dislocated. It is believed he will make complete recovery from the injuries.

Representative George H. Utter of Washington, who recently returned to Westery, has accepted an invitation to attend the reception to be held today in Baltimore in honor of Cardinal Gibbons' 50th anniversary of his priesthood and his 25th anniversary of his elevation to the office of cardinal.

FUNERAL.

Joseph S. Williams.

The funeral of Joseph Stanton Williams was held Saturday afternoon from his home, on Main street, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. A. F. Earnshaw, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery. The bearers were nephews of the deceased, Gordon Williams, Charles Foote, Frank Foote and Stanton King.

Death of Former Pastor.

Word was received in town on Saturday of the death of Rev. O. D. Sherman, a former pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church of this place. He died at his home in Alfred, N. Y., after an illness covering two years. Mr. Sherman came to Mystic in February, 1880, and took charge of the church in Greenfieldville and remained its pastor until July, 1903, when he accepted a call at Richfield, Allegany county, New York, and there remained until two years ago, when sickness compelled him to give up his labors. He was born in Brookfield, N. Y., and was 73 years of age. He made his last visit to Mystic three years ago this summer. The funeral was held in Alfred, N. Y., on Sunday afternoon. He leaves a widow and one sister in Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Albert Hathaway Injured.

Mrs. Albert Hathaway met with a serious accident on Saturday afternoon. She was on her way to Leysard, after having spent the afternoon in Mystic, and was driving up Holmes street when, near Williams corner, the horse became frightened at the sudden horse driven by Miss May Penfield, and in turning the corner the wagon turned so as to throw Mrs. Hathaway out, striking on her face. She was picked up by Mrs. Mary Nedbery and Charles Cameron and taken in the Cameron home. A trained nurse, Mrs. Smith, who is caring for Mrs. Mary Williams, next door, was sent for and gave as much relief as possible. Dr. A. M. Purdy and the district nurse, Miss Margaret Pencock, were telephoned for. On their arrival it was found necessary to take a great many stitches in her face. She was made as comfortable as possible, and later in the evening was taken to her home. The horse ran as far as Fred Barnes place, where it was stopped by a boy named La Bonte and driven to Mystic by C. C. McGaughey.

Lecture on Christian Science.

There was a large attendance at the Lyceum theater on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to listen to the lecture on Christian Science given by Clarence B. Easton, C. S. B., of Tacoma, Wash. It was given under the auspices of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, and was very interesting.

Winfield Gaskell and Benjamin Gaskell are in Meriden, and on Saturday evening attended a bachelor dinner given by their uncle, Raymond King. Mr. King, who has spent many summers here, is to be married today (Tuesday) in Meriden, and Benjamin Gaskell is to be the best man.

The graduating exercises of the Mystic High school are to take place on Thursday evening, June 15, in the assembly hall of the school. There are to be seven graduates this year—Misses Marion Bradley, Mildred Chapman, Inez Chester, Catherine Dickerson, Rachel Montgomery, Beatrice Riggs and Herbert Williams. The programme for the exercises is now being prepared.
